

Increasing producer engagement workshop

17 March 2025

Albany, WA

Midday–5pm

$100 (inc. GST)

This half day workshop, delivered by facilitation expert Andrew Huffer, will improve your understanding of how people behave in group situations and help you get equipped with core tools and processes to increase client engagement.

By attending this workshop, you will:

- better understand your role as a facilitator
- build stronger awareness of yourself and the people in your groups
- have the tools to plan and facilitate producer meetings and workshop processes.

Andrew Huffer (Andrew Huffer & Associates)

Andrew is a highly experienced facilitator and stakeholder engagement consultant with 30 years facilitation experience and 24 years in business. Over that time he has delivered over 1400 workshops across a range of industries but has maintained a focus on the agricultural space.
