

Committee Application Form – NLGC Merino Producer Representative

Name
Company
Relevant background and/or qualifications
Conflicts of interest

MLA administrative contact	Name	Sarah Day
	Email	sday@mla.com.au
Panel/committee	National Livestock Genetics Consortium
End date	3 year term
What is your previous experience in contribution to a committee or a board?
What has your involvement in the livestock industry been to date, specifically in Merino sheep breeding and use/knowledge of genetic &amp; genomic tools?
How do your skills and qualities from previous experience address the selection criteria in the EOI:
Current or preceding Merino producer/breeder in either seedstock and/or commercial breeding.
Knowledge and understanding of livestock genetics and the application of this knowledge in a commercial or seedstock Merino sheep breeding business.
A proven track record in delivery of high rates of genetic progress
Involvement in utilizing genetic and genomic tools in a Merino sheep breeding program.

Ability to work collaboratively with other scientists, producers and industry experts to achieve common goals.