

Committee Application Form – NLGC Processor Representative

Name
Company
Relevant background and/or qualifications
Conflicts of interest

MLA administrative contact	Name	Sarah Day
	Email	sday@mla.com.au
Panel/committee	National Livestock Genetics Consortium
End date	3 year term
What is your previous experience in contribution to a committee or a board?
What has your involvement in the livestock industry been to date, specifically in the processing sector?
How do your skills and qualities from previous experience address the selection criteria in the EOI:
Current or preceding Processor representative in either a beef and/or sheep processing businesses.
Knowledge and understanding of livestock genetics and the application of this knowledge in the supply chain.
Experience in guiding RD&A investments and/or implementing innovations within the processing sector
Strong industry knowledge to be familiar with current trends and challenges in the red meat industry that can guide strategic decisions for investments in genetics.

Ability to work collaboratively with other scientists, producers and industry experts to achieve common goals.