

gives you the following NB2 membership benefits:

Business analysis

A better understanding of your business based on objective data to make more informed on reproductive performance, new innovations and practice change

Peer-to-peer learning

Create connections and share experiences, ideas and perspectives with like minded producers

Benchmarking

Find out how you are performing compared to local, similar enterprises, and where you can improve

Funding support

Your $2000 investment plus an MLA donor company contribution will form a fund for group activities

Feedbase analysis

Understand your feedbase, land condition and carrying capacity to plan ahead and make more decisions for resilient and stable productivity

Learning & development

Opportunities for learning, development and training to help improve the productivity, profitability and sustainability of your herd

Latest research

Have access to the latest knowledge, solutions, and technology that will drive productivity in your business

Advice from industry experts

Access to industry leaders to support you in making measurable changes to your business

Network

Gain access to a network of leading producers, researchers and experts across northern Australia

Conference access

Attendance to an annual conference to hear from industry leaders